Arbor Day in Virginia.

In compliance with an act of the General Assembly of Virginia, which directs that the Governor shall annually in the springtime designate by official proclamation a day to be known as Arbor Day, to be observed throughout the State as a day for planting frees, shrubs and vines about the houses and along the highways and about public grounds in this State, thereby adding to the beauty, the wealth and attractions of the Commonwealth.

Now, therefore, I, Claude A, Swanson, Governor of the Commonwealth of Virginia, in pursuance of the authority thus invested in me, and in order to carry out the directions of the General Assembly aforesaid, do hereby designate Monday, March 30, 1908, as Arbor Day, and do earnestly request the citizens throughout the State to observe the same as such.

do earnestly request the common-same as such.

Given under my hand and under the lesser seal of the Common-wealth at Richmond this 19th day of March, in the year of our Lord, 1908, and in the 133d year of the Commonwealth.
